

MEMORANDUM

TO: Full Time General Faculty
FR: Greg Hatchett, Faculty Senate Elections Committee
DA: November 3, 2009
RE: CALL FOR NOMINATIONS TO FACULTY SENATE

You will find attached the calls for nominations for the Faculty Senators At-Large, the Peer Review Advisory and Hearing Committees, the Financial Exigency Condition Committee, and Complaint Process Advisory Committee elections. The nomination forms are printed on the bottom of the "call" with the details of the election procedures. The procedures vary according to the nomination requested so please read each form carefully.

For your information! The general faculty consists of all tenured, tenure-track, and "full-time non-tenure track renewable faculty". The general faculty of the College Arts & Sciences, the College of Business, and the Chase Law School will be able to cast their votes for At-Large Faculty Senators. We are also holding nominations for At-Large Senators, the Peer Review Advisory and Hearing Committees, the Financial Exigency Condition Committee, and Complaint Process Advisory Committee, till November 20, 2009. More information concerning the voting procedures will follow in the coming weeks.

If you have any questions, contact the Faculty Senate Office, hilesq1@nku.edu or Greg Hatchett, hatchettg@nku.edu. For more information or reference, you can find a list of the current Faculty Senate members, their term of office, and other valuable information on the Faculty Senate home page <http://facultysenate.nku.edu/index.php> .

Election results are announced

During the first two weeks of the Spring Semester (January Meeting) the incumbent President of the Faculty senate calls a special meeting of the 2009 - 2010 Senate (newly-elected members and those returning for their second term of office). The purpose of this meeting is to elect the officers of the new Senate that takes office on 1 July 2010.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR AT LARGE SENATORS

Two Year Term: 1 July 2010 to 30 June, 2012

Based upon the apportionment and the expiration of the terms of some of the current at-large college senators, the following vacancies need to be filled at this time for the 1 July 2010 to 30 June 2012 term.

- College of Arts & Sciences— 4 Senators to be elected
- College of Informatics— 2 Senators to be elected
- Chase College of Law—1 Senator to be elected
- Education & Health Services -- 2 Senators to be elected
- Health Professions--- 1 Senator to be elected

The current call is for nominations for these at-large college positions. Nominees may be nominated by any full-time faculty member in any college; however, voting on the nominee is restricted to tenured/tenure track members and full-time renewable faculty of the nominee's college. To be eligible to serve on the Faculty Senate, a faculty member must be full-time tenured or tenure-track faculty who has held a faculty appointment for at least one academic year before assuming a senate seat and who spends 25% of the time or less in an administrative appointment, or full-time non-tenured track renewable faculty.

According to the Faculty Senate Constitution, nominees must give consent in writing that they are willing to run for Faculty Senate. To nominate a candidate, complete the form below and return to the Faculty Senate Office AC 105 by Friday, November 20, 2009. Feel free to nominate yourself. The general election will be held from 4:30 PM, November 23th, 2009 to 4:30, December 4, 2009.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE PEER REVIEW COMMITTEES
Four Year Term: 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2013

The duties of members of the Peer Review Advisory and Peer Review Hearing committees are outlined in the Faculty Handbook Article XV. Each committee consists of five members and five alternates. Nominees may be nominated by any full-time faculty member in any college; however, voting on the nominee is restricted to tenured/tenure track members and full-time renewable faculty. Nominees for vacancies on these committees must be full-time tenured faculty members. However, * no department may be represented by more than one person on any committee. The top five, according to the frequency of votes will constitute the committees, and the next five, according to frequency of votes, will be the alternates to the committees. In the event of a tie, the matter will be settled by the Elections Committee, with the advice and consent of the affected individuals and the President of the Faculty Senate. Of the top five elected committee members of the P.R. Advisory Committee, the two top vote getters will serve for four years (1 July 2009 to 30 June 2013); the next two will serve for two years (1 July 2009 to 30 June 2011). Of the top five elected committee members of the P.R. Hearing Committee, the top three voter getters will serve for four years (1 July 2009 to 30 June 2013), and the next three will serve for two years (1 July 2009 to 30 June 2011). The results of the election process will be reported to the Elections Committee and the then to the general faculty. In order to have the necessary alternates at least eight (8) nominees are needed for the Peer Review Hearing Committee and seven (7) on the Peer Review Advisory Committee.

According to the Faculty Senate Constitution, nominees must give consent in writing that they are willing to run for Faculty Senate. To nominate a candidate, complete the form below and return to the Faculty Senate Office AC 105 by Friday, November 20, 2009. Feel free to nominate yourself.
